

Welcome

Welcome to language students and teachers across the country!

We are currently preparing for our #Linguastars event, the online version of our annual Year 12 Languages Residential that provides young people with the opportunity to experience life as a languages student. We have already confirmed the delegates for our online event this year, but we thought you might like to see the delegate's newsletter packed with plenty of useful information and links!

Quick links...

Access all our languages content on our website...

Follow us on Twitter at @UoLArtsOutreach

Why should I study Languages at University?

Learning a language will help you to develop loads of skills and it doesn't matter what job you apply for after you've completed your degree, these are all the skills that employers are generally looking for. With a languages degree you will have a brilliant foundation of skills to impress your future employer and apply to your role!

- Critical Thinking
- Independence
- Self-confidence
- Communication
- Teamwork
- Flexibility
- Presentation Skills
- Knowledge of Other Cultures
- Creativity

Seven tips for choosing the right University for you

Times Higher Education have put together "Seven tips for choosing the right university for you" and you can have a read of the advice here.

Recorded talk – Preparing for Higher Education

This talk discusses the steps you can take to prepare for undergraduate study and student life. You can view the talk here.

Explore our Languages courses

You can explore our Undergraduate courses here, including our joint honours programmes. All of our language degrees include a compulsory residence abroad.

Study Abroad – a student perspective

Travel is one of the most exciting aspects of studying a language! Read a first-hand account of a student's study abroad experiences here.

Chat to Current Students – Link to Leeds Live Events

Link to Leeds' regular online events give you the opportunity to ask current students any questions you might have about studying at the University of Leeds. Explore the dates here.

Where could my languages degree take me after University?

A degree in languages provides a huge amount of flexibility in terms of career options – an exciting prospect indeed!

Explore career possibilities on the PROSPECTS website

The University of Leeds also has a fantastic Careers Centre and our Employability team can help you on your journey to securing the perfect job for you!

We'll be back...

We'll be sharing the next newsletter on our website and social media soon so keep your eyes peeled!