Language & Business Competition Privacy Notice

18/10/2022

This privacy notice tells you what to expect us to do with your personal data when you are taking part in our activities and provides you with details of who controls that information.

If you have any questions or if anything is unclear you can contact us:

Alex Peel – Educational Engagement Lead Officer - a.peel1@leeds.ac.uk

Our data protection officer is Alice Temple. You can contact her by:

Email: dpo@leeds.ac.uk

Telephone: 0113 2431751

The university's data controller registration number provided by the Information Commissioner's Office is: Z553814X

How do we get information?

You or your teacher provide us with your information:

- On the application, registration forms, campus event form and evaluation forms for the Languages & Business Competition.
- If you complete the Equal Opportunities Monitoring Form (which is anonymous)

How we use your information and how long we keep it

Data	What we do with this	How we ask for this	How long we keep this	Legal Basis
School Name, Age, Year Group, Home Postcode	Monitor impact of the project	Student programme questionnaires	Pseudonymised on collection (anonymised at the end of the following academic year)	Public Task

UNIVERSITY OF LEEDS

Gender, disability, ethnicity	Monitor diversity on our projects	Equal opps monitoring form	Anonymous on collection	Public Task
Teacher name, mobile phone and email	Administer your participation	Pre-campus event checklist	Until the end of the academic year	Public Task

We will also ask for your students and their parents' consent, so that we can also receive information about your students from:

- External services, such as the Higher Education Access Tracker ("HEAT").

Anonymous data we collect

We will ask for anonymous information about you to make the project inclusive of your needs, this will include your health, dietary and religious requirements.

We will also ask for anonymous information on our Equal Opportunities Monitoring Form to collect information, such as ethnicity and gender, of our participants, this helps us to monitor diversity on our projects. You don't have to give us this information if you don't want to and you can still take part.

Who might we share this information with?

To help us to organise and evaluate projects we may share data with other teams in the University.

We may also include statistical information (in which you will not be identified) in internal and external reports and articles, both physical and online. Examples would include reports to regulatory bodies such as the Office for Students, funding organisations, and other partners we work with during the event.

How do we keep this information secure?

The information we hold about you will be stored on secure systems at the University of Leeds.

Your data will be accessible to university staff involved in administering and monitoring outreach.

Your data will not be transferred outside the EU.

UNIVERSITY OF LEEDS

Our lawful basis for processing your data

We will administer your participation in the project and monitor the success of the project under Public Task.

How can I have my data removed or deleted?

At your request you have the right to have your data withdrawn, deleted or amended at any time.

To fulfil your participation in the project we need to be able to process teacher contact details, if you do not want us to use your data in this way then unfortunately your school will not be able to participate.

To withdraw your registration from the programme and have your data deleted from our systems please contact Alex Peel - a.peel1@leeds.ac.uk

Your data protection rights

You have the right to:

- withdraw consent at any time where that is the legal basis of our processing;
- access your personal data that we process;
- rectify inaccuracies in personal data that we hold about you;
- be forgotten, that is your details to be removed from systems that we use to process your personal data;
- restrict the processing in certain ways;
- obtain a copy of your data in a commonly used electronic form
